Mr. Tomiwa Aladekomo and Ms Aisha Modibo have been appointed as the Acting National Chair and Deputy National respectively by the National Executive Committee on 22nd October, 2020.

Mr. Tomiwa Aladekomo is an experienced media and marketing professional, who has worked in a range of businesses across sectors in both North America and Africa. He is currently the MD/CEO at Big Cabal Media, but prior to that, he had served in various media, publishing and managerial roles at companies like Quirk, Ventra Media Group, AtlanticRecords, ChamsSwitch, SmartCity Resorts, THISDAY Media Group and Nigerian Breweries Plc.

Ms. Aisha Modibo is a development researcher and practitioner with interests in poverty, social welfare, the informal economy, and human rights (for women and for workers). She is currently working on a PhD in International Development at the London School of Economics. Prior to that, she mastered in Poverty and Development from the Institute of Development Studies in Sussex, UK, and gained work experience at various NGOs in Nigeria. In her free time, she pursues her interests in creating and editing content for Nigerian websites such as Culture Custodian.

Following the aftermath of the #EndSARS protests, it was clear from the way the government handled it that a lot of work needs to be done to heal Nigeria and her democracy. The task of building a robust political movement capable of winning power at the election booths and taking Nigeria back from regressive parties and politicians lies ahead. With this in mind, we organized a virtual event to ignite the fight for change among Nigerian youths.

Take Nigeria Back, an online Youth Party info session was held on 25th October, 2020. The speakers were;

- Mr. Tomiwa Aladekomo (Acting National Chair)
- Ms. Aisha Modibo (Deputy National Chair)
- Mr. Sada Malumfashi (Deputy National Organizing Secretary)
- Ms. Ilamosi Ekenimoh (National Executive Officer)

At the session, we discussed the history of Youth Party, what we've achieved so far and how we plan to go shape the future of Nigeria. We also answered pressing questions from interested citizens.
