Court Restrains Conduct of Lagos LG Council Polls Without the Inclusion of Youth Party

The Youth Party has won a resounding victory today in our bid to ensure participation in the forthcoming Lagos Council Election fixed for 24th July 2021 and our perennial battle to ensure that INEC and LASIEC respect the rule of law, particularly obedience to judicial decisions.

Lagos LG Poll: No Level Playing Field in Election – Youth Party

Mr Ayodele Adio ,Youth Party National Publicity Secretary

The Youth Party has said there was no level playing field in the just concluded local government election in Lagos State.

The president of the party, Tomiwa Aladekomo, said this on Sunday while addressing journalists on the irregularities they observed in Saturday's election in the state.

Mr Aladekomo said some of the supporters of the party were disenfranchised because polling units were moved to intimidating places such as the Palace of Oba Elegushi at Lekki-Ikate.

Thousands of Lagosians on Saturday voted representatives for councillorship and local government chairmanship positions across all the 20 local governments and 37 LCDAs in the state.

Lagos LG Council Polls-Campaigns and Rallies

The Youth Party participated in the Lagos LG council polls held on the 24th of July 2021. We had Candidates for the councillorship seat in the following wards.

Ward A / Eti-Osa LGA- Tari Taylaur

Ajao Ward G / Isolo LCDA- Okikiola Taiwo-Jalupon

Agbala Ward E3 / Ikorodu North LCDA- Damilola Sanni

Ward G / Agbado Oke Odo LCDA- Opeyemi Akinlotan

The campaign strategy focused on educating and connecting with people of the grassroots. We initiated programs geared towards community development and youth engagement. This campaign strategy was deployed to create awareness about the Youth Party, Our Policies and getting the aspirants to connect with the people at the grassroots.

We had Rallies/Road walk-in Lekki and Ajao Estate. Cleaning exercise was done in Itedo community in Lekki and Ajao estate in Isolo.
