Youth Party flays FG's suspension of Twitter in Nigeria

The Youth Party has condemned the Federal Government over its decision to indefinitely suspend the operations of the microblogging and social networking service, Twitter, in Nigeria.

The Party described the government’s hasty decision as a brazen infringement on the rights and dignity of Nigerians. The party stressed that the freedom of expression and access to information is an inalienable right that is sacrosanct and non-negotiable.

Why Join the Youth Party?

Politics is too important to our personal lives, security, economy and national development to be left in the hands of professional politicians. Non-participation foists the wrong candidates and policies on the electorate at general elections.

We are a new generation of Nigerians who are committed to practicing politics of reason and reform as against the usual anger and populism. We are also committed to politics devoid of ethnic and religious sentiments. We are not nationalists but patriots. We are for One Nigeria.

Nigeria will only move forward when good people like you join politics to encourage good policies and people. Only good and selfless Nigerians will move the country forward.
