WINNING THE PROPAGANDA WAR

Bokoharam has one purpose now, and that is to govern. This mission makes the terrorist group a far more significant threat to Nigeria's sovereignty than we ever imagined. Expectedly, their most important weapon of warfare is not their recently acquired anti-aircraft missile, nor the dynamism of their guerrilla tactic; it is their effective propaganda machine – one that targets hearts and minds.

This war machine is proving even more effective as the Nigerian government (including state and local governments) is spectacularly failing to provide essential social services to people in remote communities in the North East and North West.

Youth Party Is Registered, Court Of Appeal Rules

The Youth Party won a resounding victory in its bid to ensure that Independent National Electoral Commission (INEC) respects the rule of law particularly obedience of judicial decisions.

The Court of Appeal, Abuja, led by Honorable Justice T.Y. Hassan, delivered its unanimous judgement against the Appeal filed by INEC on May 11, 2021
